Why is the Blessed Virgin Mary sometimes seen standing on a snake?

Mary is often depicted in this way because her entire life has been one of victory over the devil. In the very beginning of the Bible, in Gen 3:15, God says to the serpent:

"I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel."

A bruise to the head of a serpent is fatal. So, God is saying that the seed, or offspring, of a woman will destroy the devil. In light of the New Testament, we know that this "he" who will bruise the head of the serpent is Jesus Christ. As the Letter to the Hebrews tells us:

"Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same nature, that through death he might destroy him who has the power of death, that is, the devil" (Heb 2:14).

What is interesting is that the Douay-Rheims translation (an older Catholic translation of the Bible from 1609 AD) says that "she" will bruise the head of the serpent, not "he". This means that it is the woman that will destroy the devil, not her seed.

This is probably where our Marian art finds its inspiration. But, whether it's a "he" or a "she," the fact of Mary's victory over the devil remains. Her "Yes" brought the Savior into the world, and her sinlessness only added insult to Satan's injury.

We see Mary's victory again at the very end of the Bible, in the 12th chapter of the Book of Revelation. The serpent, angry over the victory of the woman's son, tries to defeat the woman. When that fails, he goes after her offspring, who are "those who keep the commandments of God and bear testimony to Jesus" (Rev 12:17).

That's us! And, of course, we know that when we unite ourselves to Jesus, through Mary, the devil will fail in his pursuit of us as well. The image of Mary, with her heel pressed firmly on the head of the serpent, is a powerful image of the victory that that can be had through a total self-surrender of our lives to the glory of God and the fulfillment of His will.

Peace of Christ to you,

"Driving"

A teenage son had just passed his driving test and inquired to his father as to when they could discuss his use of the car.

His father said he'd make a deal with his son: "You bring your grades up from a C to a B average, study the Bible a little more and get your hair cut, then we'll talk about the car."

The boy thought for a moment, decided he'd settle for the offer and they agreed on it.

After about six weeks his father said, "Son, you've brought your grades up and I've observed that you have been studying your Bible, but I'm disappointed you haven't had your hair cut."

The boy said, "You know, Dad, I've been thinking about that, and I've noticed in my Bible readings that Samson had long hair, John the Baptist had long hair, Moses had long hair....and there's even strong evidence that Jesus had long hair!"

The father thought and replied: "You are right son, but did you happen to notice they all walked everywhere they went?!!!!"

Forming Good Stewards

“No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God.” Luke 9:51-62

When Elijah calls to Elisha, he hesitated, “Let me kiss my father and mother goodbye.” Elijah does not prevent him. Then Elisha kills the team of oxen he was driving, uses the wood of the plow to build a fire to burn their flesh and distributes it to the people and follows Elijah. He detaches himself from everything he previously depended on. Paul tells us, “For freedom Christ set us free.” Christ teaches us to be free from attachment to things of this world. This freedom is not for selfish pursuits, but “to serve one another in love.” Jesus calls us to follow him, but we sometimes hesitate. If we start to follow Jesus but let other attachments distract us, we will never be free to discern God’s will for us and respond in freedom to God for all that he has given to us. What are the attachments in our life that keep us from the true freedom that allows us to follow Christ, without hesitation? Make a list. Use the back of the page and more sheets, if necessary.

Thank You!!!!

Words can not express my gratitude to Blessed Mother Parish for the wonderful Retirement send off. Many thanks to Fr. John, Darlene, Russ, Christina, Brett, Nick, Romie, Will, Mikie, The Parish Council, and all those who worked so hard at my reception. Those who made cakes and desserts, the many who came to the reception, the many who sent cards, the gifts, the beautiful words that made me feel truly loved. My 8 years at the school and my 25 years at the parish gave me so many blessings. So many wonderful people have crossed my life, have inspired me, have blessed me in so many ways during these years. You gave me so much more than I could ever begin to give back to each of you. Thank you for the love, the support, and the friendships that you have given me over the years. My life has been changed because of each of you! The trip I was given was just awesome. I have often dreamed of someday going to the Caribbean and you have made that dream a reality! Blessed Mother will always be my Family and I hope to continue to serve the Parish in the years to come! Thank You and God Bless You!

Love, Jan

I hope you had a good week. Today is the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time and the Gospel is from Luke again. It talks about following Jesus and the things we have to do or let go of in order to do that. The Gospel is clear. Following the Lord should take precedence over everything.

Christina, our youth minister, is taking a group of our kids on a mission trip the week of the 4th of July. They are going to be ministering to inner city Nashville. We pray for a safe and rewarding excursion.

Vacation Bible School will be from July 19-23 from 9 till Noon. More information elsewhere in this bulletin.

We pray for the success of our picnic to be held Saturday, July 31st. If you need raffle tickets or haven't gotten yours yet stop by the office.

I am typing this Friday before Power Week. So I can only say on faith that it was a great week. Thanks for all the prayers. I am sure the power of God was evident and that the 90 kids and 47 staff grew in their love for the Lord and the Church.

I will be on vacation starting July 8th – 22nd.

Have a good week.

Words of Life

When Jesus speaks about eternal life, he is referring to real and true life, a life worthy of being lived. He is not simply speaking about life after death. He is talking about authentic life, a life fully alive and thus not subject to death, yet one which can already, and indeed must, begin in this world. ... We have heard Jesus' answer: this is eternal life, that they may know you — God — and the one whom you have sent, Jesus Christ. Much to our surprise, we are told that life is knowledge. This means first of all that life is relationship. No one has life from himself and only for himself. We have it from others and in a relationship with others. If it is a relationship in truth and love, a giving and receiving, it gives fullness to life and makes it beautiful.

— Pope Benedict XVI, homily, Holy Thursday 2010
