Catholic Q&A

Laugh for the Week

Below is a collection of Q&A's that I recently completed. Do you have a question about Catholicism? If so, send me an email and I will try my best to answer it.

Where Jesus Is

Four-Year- Old Brianna was at the pediatrician for a check up. When the doctor looked in her ears, he asked, "Do you think I'll find Big Bird in here?" Brianna only giggled.

Nest, the doctor took a tongue depressor and looked down her throat. This time he asked, "Do you think I'll find the Cookie Monster down there?" Brianna giggled again.

Then the doctor put a stethoscope to her chest. As he listened to her heartbeat, he asked, "Do you think I'll hear Barney in there?" "OH, NO!" Brianna replied. "Jesus is in my heart. Barney's on my underpants!"

Does the Church approve of cohabitation?

"Cohabitation" typically refers to a situation in which a couple is living as husband and wife before they are married. The Church does not condone this arrangement. For one, sexual intercourse is meant to occur within the context of marriage. It is only then that the sex act is free to pursue its proper ends: the free, total, faithful, and fruitful union of husband and wife. Even when the couple is living together without having sexual relations, cohabitation is unacceptable. It causes grave scandal to those who find out about this living arrangement, and it creates a near occasion of sin for the two people involved. Finally, from a sociological point of view, studies have shown that couples who cohabit before marriage are twice as likely to get a divorce and are significantly less happy in their marriages than those couples who wait until after they are married. No matter how you look at it, cohabitation is not a good situation, and the Church has always advised against it.

In the Book of Wisdom, why is Wisdom referred to as a female?

In the Book of Wisdom, Wisdom is a "she" because the book is written in Greek, and the Greek word for "wisdom" is sophia, which is a feminine noun. But, we should not take this to mean that God is actually a female. The author of the book (traditionally considered to be King Solomon) is simply using a literary device called personification to emphasize one of God's divine attributes: wisdom. This is fitting, considering that God IS his various attributes. God is not simply loving, He IS love. God is not simply wise, He IS wisdom. So, to strive for Godly wisdom -- to be wise as God is wise -- is to strive for God Himself. Where ever wisdom prevailed throughout all of human history, that was God at work, caring for His people and striving for their salvation.

Is the Church still referred to as "Holy Mother Church"?

Yes. I count at least 20 different instances in the Catechism of the Catholic Church in which the Church is called our mother. For example, paragraph no. 1683 says: "The Church who, as Mother, has borne the Christian sacramentally in her womb during his earthly pilgrimage, accompanies him at his journey's end, in order to surrender him 'into the Father's hands.'" Throughout the Catechism, "Holy Mother Church" says this, and "Holy Mother Church" says that. In the words of St. Cyprian, "No one can have God as Father who does not have the Church as Mother."

SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE MISSION STATEMENT

The Social Justice Committee of Blessed Mother Parish is called to engage the parish community in works of social justice and charity in accordance with the Gospel message and Catholic Social Teaching through awareness, education, and action.

We meet on the 3rd Tuesday of each month. Our next meeting is on June 15th. Please come join us.

Forming Good Stewards Pentecost Sunday

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit."
1Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

It has been seven weeks and one day since Easter Sunday. It is Pentecost [from the Greek word for "fiftieth"], the day on which the Holy Spirit encourages the Apostles to proclaim Jesus Christ to people from many nations, cultures, languages and religious beliefs. Each person heard the Apostles in their own tongue. Amazing! Even more amazing is that people with a variety of religious beliefs came to believe in Jesus. Later Paul writes to Christians in Corinth, a seaport city with people from many nations, cultures, languages and religious beliefs. He tells them something so obvious we often forget it: Each of us is a person with a unique array of talents, abilities and gifts that God has given to us to use for ourselves and for others. Material wealth, intelligence, artistic talent, athletic ability, the gift of music, and many others - God intends for us to enjoy them ourselves and to share them with others. How are we doing with that? One day God will ask.

I hope you had a good week. Today is the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity. The Gospel is from John and it sounds very much like Pentecost because it talks of the Spirit coming.

It says the Spirit will guide us to all truth. And the truth is that God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We thank God for allowing us to be in relationship with each of the persons in the Blessed Trinity.

I want to thank Darlene and Russ and Ann McIntyre and the parish council and all the many hands that helped with Jan's farewell reception this past Sunday. It was a great time and I think she was truly surprised. For those of you who couldn't make it, the parish is sending her on a cruise to the Caribbean in gratitude for 25 years of dedicated service.

Congratulations are in order for our three new priests ordained on the 29th of May. Fr. Brandon Williams will be going to the Cathedral; Fr. Steve Hohman will be going to Holy Spirit in Bowling Green; and Fr. Uwem Enoch will be going to Sts. Peter and Paul in Hopkinsville.

It is time to bring back the baby bottles for Birthright.

Monday is Memorial Day so Mass is at 9:00am to accommodate as many people as possible who would like to begin their holiday with Eucharist.

We welcome the Bishop to our parish this week. He is saying the closing Mass for the 4-6 school kids on Tuesday at 9am.

Power Week is just around the corner – June 21st to 25th. If anyone would like to donate a scholarship for a kid to go to camp the amount is $225 a child. Any amount will help. There are always a few kids who need financial assistance.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

St Stephen Cathedral will host the annual Corpus Christi procession on Sunday, June 6th at 3:00p.m. I invite your participation and encourage all parishioners to join us for this traditional Eucharistic Devotion. Fr. John Okoro will be the homilist. FR. John Vaughan.

Wanted—Parish Ecumenical Advocates

Do You have an interest in promoting greater unity among Christians? You can help by serving as an ecumenical advocate for our parish. Training will be provided by the diocese in each deanery. Advocates agree to (1) pray for the visible unity of the Church. (2) increase awareness of the need for ecumenism in their parish and (3) reach out to other Christian churches in their geographic area. If you or someone you know would be interested please contact Fr. Tony Bickett at ftonyb@yahoo.com or call 270-756-2356 for more information.
