"HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY"

CATHOLIC Q & A

What did Jesus mean when he said that a couple could not get a divorce, “except in the case of unchastity” (Mt 5:32; 19:9)?

This is a difficult passage at first, considering that the Church has always taught that a marriage entered into lawfully is indissoluble, or cannot be broken. But, we should not let difficult passages in Scripture sow doubt within us regarding the truth of Catholic teaching. Invariably, the error is not in what the Church teaches or in what Scripture says but in our own understanding.

In this case, the key to solving this riddle is in the meaning of the Greek word porneia, which the RSV translates as “unchastity.” What type of act does Jesus actually have in mind here that would allow a couple to no longer be married? Porneia is sort of a “catch-all” word that can be used to refer to many different kinds of illicit sexual unions: adultery, incest, sodomy, fornication, bestiality. However, it can also be used to refer to an unlawful marriage. In other words, only when a marriage was never lawfully entered into in the first place are the two individuals free to marry someone else. Jews considered a marriage to be unlawful if the two persons who were too closely related by blood, or if one of them was a Gentile.

This is the only meaning that reconciles Jesus’ words in Matthew’s Gospel with what He and the Apostles say elsewhere about divorce. In every other passage, their prohibition against divorce is absolute. They admit no exceptions. In Luke’s Gospel, Jesus says, “Every one who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and he who marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery.” For his part, St. Paul says:

“To the married I give charge, not I but the Lord, that the wife should not separate from her husband (but if she does, let her remain single or else be reconciled to her husband) --and that the husband should not divorce his wife. [. . .] A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives. If the husband dies, she is free to be married to whom she wishes, only in the Lord.” (1 Cor 7:10-11, 39)

The model for marriage is always the relationship of Adam and Eve before the fall. Jesus says, “For your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so” (Mt 19:8).

“Have you not read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh’? So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder” (Mt 19:4-6).

That is the teaching of Christ and of the Church.

Peace of Christ to you,
Nicholas Hardesty, Director of Religious Education

Laugh for the Week

“MOTHER’S HUMOUR”

A little boy forgot his lines in a school presentation. His mother was in the front row to prompt him. She gestured and formed the words silently with her lips, but it did not help. Her son’s memory was blank. Finally, she leaned forward and whispered the cue, “I am the light of the world.” the child beamed and with great feeling and a loud clear voice said, “MY MOTHER IS THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD!!”

Forming Good Stewards Sixth Sunday of Easter

"I saw no temple in the city for its temple is the Lord God almighty and the Lamb"
Revelations 21:10-14, -2322

The Apostle John was banished to Patmos for refusing to give up his mission to bring Christ to all people. Patmos is a charming small island in the Aegean Sea between Greece and Turkey where John wrote the Book of Revelations, a letter he addressed to the Seven Churches of Asia. Today they are on the western side of Turkey along the shores of the Dardanelles and the Aegean Sea. John employs sinister images and applies coded references to people and groups to convey the beauty of the Love of God and to challenge disciples of Jesus to stay firm in the faith. He taught that God was not confined to a building, the temple in Jerusalem. Rather, Jesus, the Lamb, and all who believe in Him and imitate Him, are temples. This challenged the beliefs and threatened the livelihood of the Jewish leaders. John also challenges us to believe in God as the source of all that we have, all that we are, and all that we ever will be. Are we good stewards of all that God has given to us?

I hope you had a good week. Happy Easter season to you. Today is the Sixth Sunday of Easter. We find ourselves still in the Gospel of John and back at the Last Supper. Jesus tells us to not be afraid even though He is going away. Next Sunday is the feast of the Ascension and then the birthday of the Church – Pentecost. He goes away to send the Holy Spirit. Let us prepare for the coming of the Spirit a few days from now.

We thank Bishop Medley for visiting us and conferring the Sacrament of Confirmation on our students. It is always a grace and blessing to have the Bishop here.

We want to thank Catherine Roberts for crowning the statue of Mary on Saturday the 8th. On this Mother's Day we pray that Mary will pray for all our moms as they minister Christ's love to their children.

It is only Tuesday when I write this so we don't know our standing at the Barbecue Festival but I want to thank all those who had a part in the success of our endeavors there. It takes a lot of people and a lot of hard work to represent the parish at this event. And we do such a good job. You all make us proud.

Finance meeting this Tuesday after Mass in library.

CONGRATULATIONS to Reverend Mister Matthew Hardesty who grew up at Blessed Mother parish.. He is the son of Perry and Jan Hardesty. Matthew was ordained a deacon this past Saturday the 24th of April. He will be serving in the Archdiocese of Louisville. God willing in one year he will be ordained to the Priesthood. Matt is the twin brother to our DRE Nick.

Power Week is just around the corner – June 21st to 25th. Girls slots are almost full so we will start a waiting list and boys are a little over half so there is still plenty of room yet for guys. If anyone would like to donate a scholarship for a kid to go to camp the amount is $225 a child. Any amount will help. There are always a few kids who need financial assistance.

Jan Storm's farewell reception will be on May 23rd after the 10:00am Mass. All are invited to attend.
