Catholic Q&A

Are the Jews still God's "chosen people"?

Yes, "for the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable" (Rom 11:29) and He said of the Jewish people:

-- "Now therefore, if you will obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my own possession among all peoples; for all the earth is mine, and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation." (Exo 19:5-6)

-- "For you are a people holy to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, out of all the peoples that are on the face of the earth." (Deut 7:6)

However, this does not mean that it is acceptable for them to explicitly reject the divinity of Jesus Christ and the New Covenant that He established. This covenant in His Blood fulfills everything that the Jewish people had previously received, and adds to the number of the "chosen people" anyone who has faith in Christ and is baptized. That is why St. Peter says that the Church has now become what the Jews always were:

-- "But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, that you may declare the wonderful deeds of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light" (1 Pet 2:9).

The Church is now the place where Jew and Greek, slave and free, man and woman can come and experience God's saving power (cf. Rom 10:12; Gal 3:28; Col 3:11). Unfortunately, the Jews, while undoubtedly God's chosen people, are people who are disobedient to this new covenant and its realization in the Church.

Fortunately, God is not through with the Jewish people yet. The Bible tells us that one sign that the End Times are upon us will be the mass conversion of the Jewish people to Christ and the New Covenant:

-- "And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of compassion and supplication, so that, when they look on him whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a first-born." (Zech 12:10)

-- "I will cleanse them from all the guilt of their sin against me, and I will forgive all the guilt of their sin and rebellion against me." (Jer 33:8)

-- Lest you be wise in your own conceits, I want you to understand this mystery, brethren: a hardening has come upon part of Israel, until the full number of the Gentiles come in, and so all Israel will be saved" (Rom 11:25-26)

What a great day that will be!

Peace of Christ to you,

Laugh for the Week

Bells are Calling

A minister was walking to church one morning when he passed one of his members working in his garden. "The bells are calling you to church this fine morning" admonished the minister.

"What did you say? Asked the member.

"Can't you hear those bells calling you to church?"

"I'm afraid you'll have to speak a little louder!" said the member.

"CAN'T YOU HEAR THOSE BELLS CALLING YOU TO CHURCH?!" shouted the minister.

"I'M sorry," said the member, "I can't hear you because of those noisy BELLS!"

Forming Good Stewards

Twenty Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead." Luke 16:19-31

Those words of Jesus at the end of the story about the rich man who had more than he needed and Lazarus the beggar seem rather harsh. There is no gentle way to say that when we are dead it will be too late to do the good we should have done when we were alive. Unfortunately, when it comes to imitating Jesus we all have a little Scarlet O'Hara in us: "I'll take care of that tomorrow!" We will get around to it. Try this exercise. Get a pencil or pen and a blank sheet of paper. Draw a circle. Take a pair of scissors and cut along the lines of the circle. Now write inside the circle the letters TOIT. You now have a Round TOIT. You no longer have any more excuses for not imitating Jesus. That is, of course, unless you do not know Jesus. And whose fault is that? Here is another exercise: Pick up the Bible! Read it! You will learn what Jesus promised and that He rose from the dead. With that knowledge and your Round TOIT, you should be all set. Get busy imitating Jesus by loving God and your neighbor as yourself.

I hope you had a good week. Today is the 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time. We've been reading St. Paul's letter to Timothy. Paul talks of competition. We know what that means – most of us in sports anyway. We are to compete for the faith. It takes exercise and training and determination midst difficulties. Just like sports!

Youth group DOES meet tonight. Religious Ed meets this morning. Coffee and doughnuts after the 10am Mass.

RCIA has already begun. There is still time to join. So if you know anyone who might be interested have them call the office.

There will be a server's training session on Wednesday evening the 29th at 6:30pm in church.

Sometime in the next few weeks I will be sending out a report card to everyone on your pledges that were made last March. It is simply a reminder. I have had people tell me in the past that sometimes their amount of giving slips their minds and it helps to have an update from time to time. So we are sending you an update for the past two quarters.

Next summer I will be taking a group to Rome Italy for a tour. We will leave July 11 and return July 20th. We will visit Florence and Pisa, Siena and Assisi as well as 4 nights in Rome. The contact person for this trip is Suzanne Russell and you can phone her for more information at 685-4793 (leave a message) or email her at smrusmk@bellsouth.net. There are also brochures in the office with price and itinerary. You will need a passport for this trip.
