Catholic Q&A

What is Advent?

The Modern Catholic Dictionary, by Fr. John A. Hardon, tells us that Advent is:

“A period of prayer in preparation for Christmas, including four Sundays, the first nearest the feast of St. Andrew, November 30. It is the beginning of the Church's liturgical year (Etym. Latin adventus, a coming, approach, arrival.)”

Advent is a time of preparation for and anticipation of the coming of the Lord that we celebrate on Christmas Day. It is an opportunity to place ourselves in the shoes of the Jewish people who waited so long for the coming of the Messiah. It is an opportunity to renew our appreciation for the Incarnation, the moment when the Son of God became man, one like us in all things but sin.

Advent takes on a somber tone, similar to Lent, because our minds are focused on what life is like without Christ, without God's entrance into our world. Of course, in waiting for this coming of the Lord, Advent takes on an eschatological tone as well since, as Christians, we also await the Second Coming, when Jesus will come again and make all things new.

Unfortunately, the same world that God so desired to save can often squelch the spirit of Advent that we are called to embrace. If we are anxious it is not for the coming of the Lord, it is because traffic to the mall is backed up, Wal-Mart is all out of Nintendo Wii's, and the kids are yelling in the back seat because they want to go see Santa Claus. It's easy in times like this to forget what Christmas is really all about.

This is where Advent comes in. Once we understand Advent for what it is truly meant to be, it can be the antidote to the stress that often accompanies the holiday season. Advent calls us to refocus our minds back to what is important and to remember again the true reason for the season.

Over 2,000 years ago, God asked a virgin a simple question: “Will you let me use you to bring my Son to the world? Will you give me your flesh, your life, your time, your entire being?” In a sense, this is the same question that God asks us today, and Advent is a time to prepare ourselves so that when God wishes to come through us, we like Mary, will be able to say “Yes” to Him.

Let us also remember that with Advent's past significance (in the Incarnation) and future significance (in the Second Coming) is also a present reality. Jesus comes, here and now, whenever the Eucharist is celebrated. In a sense, every Mass is a new Advent, and it only makes sense that, during this time of preparation, we should remain close to Christ in the Eucharist. It is in that advent that He is preparing us for the advent that awaits the end of time.

Peace of Christ to you,
Nicholas Hardesty, Director of Religious Education

Laugh for the Week

“Getting to Heaven”

The Pastor was just ending his children’s sermon about getting to heaven. After he prayed with them he asked, “So kids, where do you want to go?”

“HEAVEN!” “HEAVEN!” all the kids yelled.

“And what do you have to be to get there?” asked the pastor.

“DEAD!” shouted the little voice in the back row.

Forming Good Stewards

First Sunday of Advent

“So, too, you must always be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect

The Son of Man will come.” Matthew 24:37-44

As we prepare to celebrate the birth of the Prince of Peace we might do well to contemplate that moment when we actually meet Jesus face to face. Imagine that you are told that Jesus will come to meet you. You are taken to a vast open field and told that Jesus will approach from a certain direction. You train your eyes on the horizon and wait. Then, in the far distance, you see a figure moving toward you. As the figure gets closer you begin to make out some features, such as height, gait, clothing, and more. As the person steadily walks closer to you can make out hair color and facial features. Suddenly, you realize that you know this person. It is someone you encountered who was in need of your assistance. There are two possibilities. You did help this person or you did not. Knowing it is Jesus who approaches, what do you hope you did? So we must always be prepared, for at an hour we do not expect, the Son of Man will come to us.

First Friday Pot Luck

First Friday, After Noon Mass
Bring a dish and stay for Bunko

I hope you had a good week. Today is the First Sunday of Advent. We also start a new year of Grace concentrating on the Gospel of Matthew. Since this is the season of anticipation and expectation we are not surprised that Jesus tells us to be prepared for His coming. Let us spend this new season waiting for the coming of Christ.

Youth group DOES NOT meet tonight. Religious Ed DOES NOT meet this morning.

Next week we will welcome our RCIA candidates for the Rite of Acceptance. Let us pray for all those people on this journey of faith that the coming Christ will sustain them with His love.

We will try to have more tags for the Giving Tree if we have run out. You all are exceptional when it comes to helping the less fortunate.

Our Advent Penance Service will be next Sunday afternoon, December 5th at 2pm. Other Penance Services are listed elsewhere in this bulletin.

Special thanks to the families who are bringing up our Advent candles this season.

GRIEVING THROUGH THE HOLIDAYS

Grief is a complex process, unique to each individual, based on personality type, circumstances of death, and our relationship with the person who died. There will be a bereavement support group for anyone who has experienced a death at any time of his/her life. This group will run every Monday for three consecutive weeks and is open to all the public at no charge.
