CATHOLIC Q&A

What are the precepts of the Church?

The precepts of the Church are the minimum requirements for living an authentic Catholic life. The Catechism of the Catholic Church lists five precepts (cf. nos. 2041-2043). I would like to comment on each one.

1. You shall attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation, and rest from servile labor.

One day a week: it's the least we could do for a God who has given us so much. By "servile labor," the Church means any "work or business that would inhibit the worship to be given to God, the joy proper to the Lord's Day, or the due relaxation of mind and body" (Code of Canon Law, no. 1247). In other words, try to mow the lawn, clean the dishes, do the laundry, finish your homework, etc. on Friday or Saturday, instead of on Sunday.

2. You shall confess your sins at least once a year.

Mortal sins must be forgiven through the sacrament of Confession, and this must be done before one can receive the Eucharist. Of course, we are encouraged to confess our venial sins as well, and to go to Confession much more regularly than once a year. Pastors and spiritual directors usually advise going to Confession at least once a month, but you can go more often if necessary.

3. You shall receive the sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season.

There's no better time to receive the Eucharist than during the season in which we commemorate Jesus' offering of himself to the Father (and to us) for our salvation. Of course, we are encouraged to receive the Eucharist any time that we are properly disposed to receive it -- meaning, we have no mortal sin on our soul, we have observed the one-hour fast before Communion, and we believe that what we are receiving is truly Christ.

4. You shall observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church

All Fridays of the year are days of penance. However, only on Fridays in Lent are Catholics, aged 14 and older, bound to abstain from meat. On all other Fridays, Catholics in the U.S. are permitted to substitute abstinence with some other act of penance or charity. On Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, moreover, Catholics aged 18 to 59 inclusive, are bound to fast, which means, at the least, having one full meal during that day and two smaller meals, with no snacking between.

5. You shall help to provide for the needs of the Church.

This is important so that the Church has available to it "those things which are necessary for divine worship, for apostolic and charitable work and for the worthy support of its ministers" (Code of Canon Law, no. 222).

Peace of Chris to you,
Nicholas Hardesty, Director of Religious Education

Laugh for the Week

“Remodel”

The crumbling old church desperately needed remodeling, so the preacher made an impassioned appeal, obviously directed at a particular man. At the end of the message, the man stood up and announced, “Pastor, I will contribute $1,000.

Just then, a chunk of plaster fell from the ceiling and struck the man on the shoulder. He promptly stood again and shouted, “Pastor, I will increase my donation to $5,000.” Before he could sit back down, plaster fell on him again, and again he virtually shouted, “Pastor, I will double my last pledge.”

As he sat down, a larger chunk of plaster fell, hitting him on the head. He stood once more and hollered, “Pastor, I will give $20,000!”

At this a deacon shouted “Hit him again, Lord! Hit him again!!”

New Roman Missal

On Sunday, November 27 of this year, Catholics in the United States will begin worshiping with the newly-translated texts of the third edition of the Roman Missal.

Have you ever wondered why we sit for the first two readings at Mass but stand for the Gospel? This is one of several ways that the liturgy indicates the special significance of the portion of the Bible that is found in the four gospels. We believe, of course, that Christ speaks to us in all the readings. Because he is the Word of God made flesh, whatever God says to us comes to us through Christ. Yet there is still something special about those four books that give us most of our information about Jesus himself. The gospels reveal him to us, recounting his teaching and his miracles, his journeys and his encounters with people of his time, his death and his resurrection. It is in the four gospels that we find the fullest picture of Jesus and his meaning for our lives. Through the gospel, Christ challenges us to imitate him and to walk in his ways. That’s why the liturgy treats it with such solemnity and reverence.

Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“You cannot serve God and mammon.”

Matthew 6:24-34

Who or what is mammon? It can mean several things: our desire for physical pleasures, financial wealth, political power, the admiration and adulation of others, the unconditional love of the person or people we claim to love. Jesus tells us not to worry [obsess] about these things. His wise words seem contrary to message we received from our family and friends, culture, and the barrage of advertising that constantly assaults us. He clearly speaks of values that are the polar opposite of the modern standard: “The one who dies with the most things wins.” G. K. Chesterton said, “The things that we cannot do without we do not possess, they possess us.” That is a clever way of rephrasing the wisdom of Jesus that “You cannot serve God and mammon.” The more attached we become to all the things God created for us, the harder it is for us to stay attached to the Creator of all things. Every day we must choose between God and mammon. Our eternal happiness depends on what we choose.

I hope you had a good week. Today is the Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Jesus tells us not to be anxious about anything for God will always provide for us.

Religious Ed does meet today and youth group meets tonight.

Our annual stewardship drive is in full swing. This is commitment Sunday. If you did not receive your stewardship packet please call the office. If you did not bring your forms to Mass this weekend simply drop them by the office or mail them in. Thanks.

I would like to thank all the witnesses on our video this past weekend. Your testimonies were very rewarding. I would like to thank Cliff Russell for the many hours in preparing the video for us.

It's hard to believe that we are planning for summer already but Power Week plans are in full swing. I have to be away Sunday the 6th of March for a workshop. I have to be certified every year in order to be a facilitator for the low elements course at Brandon Spring Camp. Fr. Phil Riney will be here in my place.

Liturgy committee meets this Wednesday at 6:30pm.

Lent is just around the corner. We continue to hold our RCIA candidates in prayer as they journey towards Easter. This year I would like to try to have stations of the cross at 6:30pm every Friday during Lent.

The Rome trip is fast approaching. We have the capacity for 45 participants and currently have 16 signed up. I will keep a running tally for you so you know when it is filling up. We leave July 11th and return the 20th. Brochures are in the office.

Roman Missal Workshops

Here are the remaining dates for the Roman Missal workshops (all times are 10-12 noon):

Saturday, February 26 Holy Name

School Hall, Henderson

Saturday, March 5 Christ the King, Madisonville
(rescheduled from Feb. 5 because of snow)

The Social Justice Committee has a thought for you to ponder during the month of February. Unity is not an Option. John Paul II in his encyclical THAT ALL MAY BE ONE SAID: "The quest for Christian unity is not a matter of choice, but a duty which springs from the very nature of the Christian community. It extends to everyone, faithful and clergy alike, according to the ability of each."

The Social Justice Committee meets every third Tuesday. We welcome new members.

The prayer blanket meets every second Wednesday. New members are welcomed.
