Catholic Q&A

Sometimes, when I go to certain Catholic churches, no one kneels during the Eucharistic Prayer. When that happens, should I kneel or just remain standing like everyone else?

First, I should say that only the bishop can speak authoritatively on this matter. I can only share my personal thoughts as a student of the liturgy and the Church.

That said, it might help to define what the "Eucharistic Prayer" is. Basically, this is the period of the Mass when the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of our Lord. This is when the Sacrifice of Christ, together with our own sacrifices, is offered to the Father for the salvation of souls. It begins after the gifts are taken up to the altar and the priest prays over them. It ends after the "Great Amen", when we stand to pray the "Our Father."

There is a reason why we are called to kneel during this time. As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (or "GIRM") tells us, the Eucharistic Prayer is "the center and summit of the entire celebration" (no. 78). This is when a great miracle takes place. It is in the midst of the Eucharistic Prayer that Jesus Christ Himself becomes substantially present among us, waiting to abide within us. It stands to reason that we should give this moment our greatest act of reverence and worship, which is kneeling.

That we should kneel, instead of sitting or standing, to show this reverence and worship is not so much dictated by our culture as it is by Sacred Scripture and Tradition. In the Old Testament, we see that, at the dedication of the Temple, Solomon knelt "in the presence of all the assembly of Israel" (2 Chron 6:13). Ezra fell upon his knees during the evening sacrifice (cf. Ezra 9:5). The Acts of the Apostles tells us how Peter (9:40), Paul (20:36), and the whole Christian community (21:5) prayed on their knees. Jesus himself knelt down to pray in the Garden of Gethsemane (cf. Lk 22:41). As you can see, it is not above anyone to kneel.

Now, the GIRM does say that one is excused from kneeling during the Eucharistic Prayer if "prevented on occasion by reasons of health, lack of space, the large number of people present, or some other good reason" (no. 43). But, I've never been to a church or chapel in Owensboro where I wasn't able to kneel. Yes, it may be a little uncomfortable if there are no kneelers, and it can be a little embarrassing if you are the only one kneeling. But, as long as you are physically able to kneel, you should.

The Son emptied himself, took on the form of a servant, and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross (cf. Phil 2:7-8). The least we can do is kneel in worship of him (and praise Him if it requires a sacrifice on our part), so that "at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth" (Phil 2:10).

Peace of Christ to you,
Nicholas Hardesty, Director of Religious Education

The Diocese of Owensboro is beginning a Strategic Planning Process. As a part of this process we want to hear what you have to say. In February, six Listening Sessions will be held in various parts of the diocese. These sessions will be open to anyone who would like to participate.

Feb. 8 -- 10:00 - 12:00 am -- Holy Name
Parish Hall, Henderson

Feb. 10 -- 1:00 - 3:00 pm -- Christ the King
Parish, Madisonville

Feb. 11 -- 10:00 - 12:00 am -- St. Martin
Parish, Rome

Feb. 16 -- 10:00 - 12:00 am -- Holy Spirit
Parish, Bowling Green

Feb. 17 -- 10:00 - 12:00 am -- St. Joseph
Parish, Leitchfield

Feb. 18 -- 10:00 - 12:00 am -- St. John
Parish, Paducah

For any and all who are unable to attend a Listening Session, the Diocesan website will provide an opportunity for you to express your opinions electronically at <http://www.rcdok.org/spp>. This opportunity will be open following the last scheduled Listening Session on Feb. 18.

This is an exciting time for our diocese. The Holy Spirit is already accomplishing wonderful things and will reveal to us our direction for the next five years.

Laugh for the Week

“REMEDY”

Three preachers were discussing their attempts to get rid of the bats in their respective church bell towers.

The first preacher said he had tried to shoot them, but that had left holes in the roof—and now he had leaks as well as bats.

The second preacher said he had tried catching the bats in a net and driving them out into the country—but the bats usually returned before he did.

The third preacher announced he had solved the problem at his church. He said, “I just named and baptized them all, then added them to my membership list, and I haven’t seen them since!!”

New Roman Missal

On Sunday, November 27 of this year, Catholics in the United States will begin worshiping with the newly-translated texts of the third edition of the Roman Missal.

Why do we gather week after week for the celebration of the Mass? Some of us come because it’s a habit. Others come because they are grateful for God’s gifts. And many of us come for several of those reasons combined. More basic than all of those reasons, however, we all come because God has called us here. It was God’s own life through baptism. It was God who called us to carry on the mission of Christ in the world today. We come in response to God’s call.

Forming Good Stewards

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“You are the light of the world . . .

Just so, your light must shine before others.”

Matthew 5:13-16

We flip a switch when we walk into a dark room and it is filled with light. We press a button on a flashlight and we can see in the dark night. When the power fails or batteries go bad, we find ourselves in darkness and we cannot see our way. We may get frightened because we cannot see the world around us and we fear the unknown. When we are lost in the dark and we see a light in the distance we have reason to hope that the light will lead us to help. Jesus calls us “the light of the world” and instructs us, “your light MUST shine before others.” The source of our “light” is the unique array of all of the talents, abilities and gifts that God has given to each of us. When we accept the responsibility to discover, accept, develop and use our unique talents, abilities and gifts to the best of our ability for our own benefit and the benefit of others, and imitate Jesus, our light is very powerful. Others can look at us and see the glory of God and have hope that they too can be all that God created them to be.

From Death to New Life

Our prayers and Sympathy are extended to the family of Gertrude Jones. May she share in the Resurrection of the Lord!

I hope you had a good week. Today is the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time. We have another excerpt today from the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's Gospel. The famous salt of the earth and light of the world passage. We season people's lives like herbs and spices and salt. May we be the right kind of seasoning that leads people to the Lord and His Church.

Finance Committee meeting this coming Tuesday evening after Mass.

Stewardship committee meeting Wednesday evening at 6:30. We will be previewing the witness video that we will be showing at all the Masses on the weekend of the 19th and 20th.

Our annual stewardship drive will be in February again this year. Commitment Sunday will be the 27th and video witnessing Sunday will be the weekend before. You will be receiving information in the mail soon.

Our scouts will be with us this weekend celebrating at the 10 am Mass. We pray for them and all the adults that minister to the young people.

FYI: a business matter that is coming up. The finance and parish councils have been debating on replacing the huge air conditioner that supplies the parish hall. We are constantly calling for repairs during the summer months. It's not exactly broke but it doesn't work right either. We feel several smaller units will do a better job than the "monster" as it has been nicknamed. More on this later.

The Social Justice Committee has a thought for you to ponder during the month of February. Unity is not an Option. John Paul II in his encyclical THAT ALL MAY BE ONE SAID: "The quest for Christian unity is not a matter of choice, but a duty which springs from the very nature of the Christian community. It extends to everyone, faithful and clergy alike, according to the ability of each."

The Social Justice Committee meets every third Tuesday. We welcome new members.

The prayer blanket meets every second Wednesday. New members are welcomed.
