CATHOLIC Q&A

Why do we put ashes on our forehead on Ash Wednesday?

Ashes are a symbol of mourning, mortality, and penance. After all, "you are dust, and to dust you shall return" (Gen 3:19). That was God's reminder to Adam after he committed the original sin. During Old Testament times, God's people would cover themselves with ashes in times of mourning, or to make reparation for their sins (cf. Esther 4:1; Job 42:6; Dan 9:3). We do the same in order to remind ourselves of our own sins and of the fact that we are entirely dependent upon God for every second of our being. Therefore, we must make of this life all that God desires it to be, and remove from our lives anything that would hasten our spiritual death and keep us from Him.

What is Lent?

Lent is a period of about 40 days, not counting Sundays, in which we spiritually prepare ourselves for the Resurrection of the Lord on Easter Sunday. Lent is a somber time of personal reflection, of penance, prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. It is a time for calling to mind our sins, all the times in which we helped drive the nails into the hands and feet of Christ. It is a time for redoubling our efforts to grow in our prayer life and to experience God in the Sacraments of the Church. It is also a time for doing good works, for loving one another as Christ loved us.

What does it mean to "fast" and to "abstain." When do we do these things? Who is required to do them?

To "fast" means, at minimum, eating one regularly-sized meal and two smaller meals, with no snacking in between. Such fasting is obligatory on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday for all Catholics age 18 - 60 years old. To "abstain" is to refrain from eating the flesh and organs of warm-blooded animals. This abstinence is obligatory on Ash Wednesday and every Friday during Lent for all Catholics age 14 and up.

Why do people "give up" something for Lent? Is this something that we have to do?

While this is not strictly required, traditionally, Catholics choose something to give up, or refrain from doing, during Lent so as to embrace the penitential character of this season. Some people take this opportunity to overcome bad habits, like biting your nails, or smoking, or cursing. Others will give up something they enjoy, like ice cream, or television, or Facebook. Whatever you do during Lent to unite yourself to the "Suffering Servant" is a good and laudable thing.

Peace of Christ to you,
Nicholas Hardesty, Director of Religious Education

“Old Family Bible”

A little boy opened the big family Bible. He was fascinated as he fingered through the old pages. Suddenly, something fell out of the Bible. He picked up the object and looked at it. What he saw was an old leaf that had been pressed between the pages. “Mama, look what I found,” the boy called out. “What have you got there, dear?” With astonishment in the young boy’s voice, he answered, “I think it is Adam’s underwear!!”

New Roman Missal

On Sunday, November 27 of this year, Catholics in the United States will begin worshiping with the newly-translated texts of the third edition of the Roman Missal.

The readers in your parish find the readings assigned for each day of the year in a liturgical book called the lectionary. The reforms of the Second Vatican Council sought to open up the treasures of the Bible more fully to the faithful. To give Catholics this broader exposure to sacred scripture, the cycle of readings repeats every 3 years for Sundays (Year A, Matthew; Year B, Mark; Year C, Luke with parts of John read every year during the Easter season) and every two years for weekday readings. If you went to mass every day for three years, you would hear a large portion of the Bible proclaimed.

CARD OF THANKS

We sincerely thank our parish family for the outpouring of love and support at the death of David Jr.. Fr. John, the choir, the abundance of food, your prayers and all other expressions of sympathy were, and are, a great comfort to us all. As we embrace the unconditional love of God, we are strengthened by the witness of His Body — The Church.

With Love,
David and Karen Jarboe and Family

Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven.. .”

Matthew 7:21-27

“Jesus, here’s the deal. I have worked hard and done fairly well for myself in this ‘dog-eat-dog’ world. But, I am willing to call you ‘Lord, Lord.’ I’m even willing to drop a couple of dollars in the basket on Sunday and give a few bucks to the missionary priest when he comes begging. But do you actually expect me to do all the things you said? There is that ‘love our neighbor’ thing; and even worse, that ‘love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, pray for people who persecute you’ stuff. And what’s with that ridiculous idea, ‘If someone asks for your coat, give him your shirt as well’? Come on, Jesus, get real.” Does that sound like a conversation we have had with Jesus? If so, it is time for us to have another conversation with Jesus. But be warned, he does not mince words. He really meant it when he said, “Only those who do the will of my Father will enter the kingdom.” Just saying “Lord, Lord!” won’t get us in.

I hope you had a good week. Today is the Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time. We prepare for the coming season of penance as we try to build our houses on the rock of faith.

Religious Ed does meet today and youth group meets tonight.

Finance meeting Tuesday evening after Mass.

Thank for returning your stewardship forms. Just drop them by the office or mail them in as soon as you can.

Ash Wednesday is upon us. Remember the collection for Mandeville. The Mass on Tuesday night is NOT a vigil Mass for Ash Wednesday. And don't forget Ash Wednesday is a day of fast and abstinence. Please note the Mass schedule.

We continue to hold our RCIA candidates in prayer as they journey towards Easter. This year I would like to try to have stations of the cross at 6:30pm every Friday during Lent.

The Rome trip is fast approaching. We have the capacity for 45 participants and currently have 16 signed up. I will keep a running tally for you so you know when it is filling up. We leave July 11th and return the 20th. Brochures are in the office.

And thanks for praying for our persecutors.
