601 East 23rd Street
Owensboro, KY 42303
January 24th, 2016

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot..... Jeremiah 29:11-14(NAB)

Catholic Q&A

What is Ordinary Time?

Ordinary Time is the period of the liturgical year that falls between Christmas and Lent, and between Easter and Advent. Thus, having just concluded the Christmas season with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we are now in Ordinary Time.

Often, when we hear the word "ordinary" we think of something that is mundane, or banal, or dull. But, we should not think of this time in such a way.

The word "ordinary" comes from the Latin word ordinarius, which means "customary, regular, usual, orderly." This time is called ordinary because the Sundays that fall within it are numbered and succeed in an orderly fashion.

Christmas and Easter, with their climactic joy and celebration, are the great mountain peaks of the liturgical year. Ordinary Time, then, is the vast verdant meadows that lie between. As Christians we are called now to descend these peaks and, like sheep who hear the voice of their shepherd, pasture and graze in these meadows with Christ as He feeds us with His Word and His Eucharist. This makes the color green, with its connotations of life and growth, very appropriate.

Without a great liturgical feast to prepare for or celebrate, the Sunday liturgy becomes all the more important during Ordinary Time. According to The General Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar, the days of Ordinary Time, especially the Sundays, "are devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects."

If you are not in the habit of making the most out of your Sunday, now is the time. Remember, God did not say to keep holy the Lord's "hour" or the Lord's "45-minutes" (if the homily happens to be short). We are called to keep holy the Lord's day.

Perhaps before the family heads off to church, someone (ideally the father) could read the readings for the day aloud and everyone could discuss their meaning. Or, on the ride home from church, the parents could ask the children if they remember what was mentioned in the first reading, or what Fr. John talked about in his homily.

When you get home, don't immediately turn on the TV or hop on the internet. Take a trip to the library and have everyone check out a book. Take a nap. Exercise. Write in a journal. Play outside. Visit a friend or relative you haven't seen in a while. Do something nice for someone else. PRAY! Worshipping the Lord, doing good works, and rejuvenating yourself is what Sunday is all about.

Peace of Christ to you,
Nicholas Hardesty, Director of Religious Education

Laugh for the Week

A famous surgeon went on a safari in Africa. When he came back, his colleagues asked him how it had been. "Oh, it was very disappointing," he said. "I didn't kill a thing. I'd have been better off staying here in the hospital." -----

A doctor said to his patient, "Well, your leg is swollen, but I wouldn't worry about it." The patient replied, "No, and if your leg were swollen I wouldn't worry about it either." -----

A man kept going to the eye doctor because his eye hurt and the doctor finally discovered his problem. He said, "Your eye hurts when you drink tea, so you can't drink tea." So the patient said, "But I love tea." The doctor replied, "Okay, as long as you take the spoon out."

Forming Good Stewards Sunday Collections

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

John 2:1-11

Mary said, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her,
"Woman, how does your concern affect me?"

A wedding feast in the time of Jesus lasted a week or more. Some guest traveled long distances on foot. They stayed several days to recuperate, celebrate and prepare for their return home. The host provided food and wine during their stay, and for their return. When Mary told Jesus, "They have no wine" she was not only concerned about the embarrassment of the host, but for the welfare of the guest. Jesus was not unconcerned, but he was not ready to draw attention to himself. The love of his Mother moved him to action. Mary's faith in Jesus is revealed in her instructions to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Mary's last words recorded in Scripture are directed, not only the servants, but to all disciples of Jesus. She is speaking to us. The full implications of her words would not be known until the Last Supper when Jesus tells his disciples to "Love one another as I have loved you," and then goes out to be crucified. Doing whatever Jesus tells us, if we are open to Him in prayer, can be unfamiliar, inconvenient, unpleasant, or risky. The apostles did what Jesus told them. Are we doing what Jesus tells us?

Sex and Marriage:

A Presentation and Discussion

Presented by Joe Bland, Director of Family Life for the Diocese of Owensboro and

Fr. Josh McCarty

Tuesday January 26, 2016

6:45pm - 8:15pm

Youth Room

The year 2015 has pushed the boundaries of society's understanding of sexuality and of marriage. Bruce Jenner identified as transgender; same-sex marriages are permitted by law; and Pope Francis enacting new laws regarding the Declaration of Invalidity process.

Join us for a presentation and discussion as we look at the Church's position on the matter. We will look at the insight offered by St. John Paul II and celebrate the true nature of sex and marriage. We will also discuss pastoral care for those who are affected by these same issues. It will be a lively evening!

All those in High-School and older are welcome!
