I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot..... Jeremiah 29:11-14(NAB)

Catholic Q & A

Instead of the usual Q&A, I would like to use this space to let you know about some things I need your help with.

The first thing is Religious Ed. This is a program for children who belong to the parish but do not go to Catholic schools. It's an opportunity for the parish to supplement what you are doing at home in order to ensure that our children grow up with a firm grasp of their Catholic faith.

Religious Ed classes are on Sundays during the school year. After the 10 AM Mass, the children and their families gather in the Parish Hall, where they have about 10 or 15 minutes to grab a donut and some juice. Then I dismiss them from there to the various classrooms. Class is from 11:15 AM to 12:30 PM. Parents go to the classroom to pick up their children.

The cost is $50 for one child, $65 total for two children, and $75 total for three or more. If you need financial assistance, please let me know. We will make it work.

There are other important items to add to your calendar:

-- Registration for Religious Ed starts now! You can register online by going to www.blessedmotherchurch.com, or you can fill out the forms in the Parish Office.

-- There is no parent meeting this year. I think it will be easier to just email parents the information they need. Make sure you give me a working email address when you register so that you can receive the Religious Ed Handbook and the calendar for when class is in session.

-- The first day of class for the 2016-2017 school year is Sunday, Aug. 14th. We'll be off on Sept. 11 (when we usually start) so that families can attend the Mount picnic.

The next item of importance is the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, or RCIA. This is for any non-Catholic adult who has questions about Catholicism or who might be interested in becoming Catholic. I rely on you heavily to bring to me individuals for this process.

Please take the time, on the way home from Mass today, to consider as a family who you might want to invite to join the RCIA process. You could make a list of your non-Catholic friends, relatives, and co-workers, and then divide up the names among yourselves. Or, make a game out of it and see who can invite the most people!

Everyone reading this article has someone in his or her life who is waiting for that invitation to know God better and to consider the Catholic faith. Someone is waiting on you. The Holy Spirit is waiting on you. We have a large parish here at Blessed Mother. We could fill a classroom with inquirers if we really put our mind to it!

RCIA begins on Thurs., Sept. 1 at 7 PM in the "Youth Room" in the Family Life Center.

Peace of Christ to you,
Nicholas Hardesty, Director of Religious Ed

Laugh for the Week

Reaching the end of a job interview, the Human Resources Person asked a young engineer who was fresh out of MIT, "What starting salary were you thinking about?"

The Engineer said, "In the neighborhood of $125,000 a year, depending on the benefits package."

The interviewer said, "Well, what would you say to a package of 5 weeks vacation, 14 paid holidays, full medical and dental, company matching retirement fund to 50% of salary, and a company car leased every 2 years - say, a red Corvette?"

The Engineer sat up straight and said, "Wow! Are you kidding?"

The interviewer replied, "Yeah, but you started it."

Parish Picnic Saturday July 23rd, 2016

Forming Good Stewards Sunday Collections

Luke 9:51-62

"I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home."

Jesus and his disciples were prevented from entering a Samaritan town because they were on their way to Jerusalem. The Samaritans believed God was in their temple, not the temple in Jerusalem. The disciples asked Jesus if he wanted them to "call down fire from heaven to consume" the town. They had no idea how to do that but they had seen Jesus work many wonders and wanted Him to do it. Jesus knew that God is not constrained to a temple or other building and that such an attitude reveals a belief that we can confine God to a place where we can occasionally go to visit Him, say some prayers, and hope He will stay while we go out and live our life without Him. On the journey several people had the opportunity to follow Jesus, but gave a variety of excuses, including ". . . first let me say farewell to my family at home." As Catholics we believe our life is from God and in God. We cannot confine God to a place or a religious practice. And, if we are a true disciple of Jesus, we can put no conditions on following and imitating Jesus.
